August 30, 2006

Good day!

The World of Coal Ash, jointly sponsored by the American Coal Ash Association and the University of Kentucky Center for Applied Energy Research, is only eight months away!

WOCA 2007 will be held May 7-10, 2007 at Covington's Northern Kentucky Convention Center on the South Side of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Major topics addressed during the meeting include, but are not limited to:

Synthetic Gypsum	Agricultural Applications of CCPs
Storage and Disposal	Economics
Concrete and Cement	Co-combustion
Environmental Issues	Fly Ash
Regulatory Issues	Boiler Slag
Emerging Technologies	And much more...

Applications for unsolicited oral and poster presentations and abstracts are due October 2, 2006. Submission instructions may be found at:
<http://www.worldofcoalah.org/presenters/callforpapers.html>

Exhibitor and Sponsor information may be found at:
<http://www.worldofcoalah.org/sponsorship/exhibitorinfo.html>

You must be a registered exhibitor and/or sponsor by October 2, 2006 in order for your logo to appear on the Registration Brochure, to be mailed December 2006.

Extensive social and networking programs are planned, including a Monday evening beer tasting reception and a Tuesday evening Riverboat Dinner Cruise, among others.

A CCP short course will be offered on Monday, May 7, 2007, and various association meetings will be held in conjunction with WOCA 2007.

For more information please contact ACAA or the UKY-CAER.

Sincerely,

Annely Noble
