

U.S. Department of Energy
Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy

Greater Long Island Clean Cities Coalition (GLICCC) Recent Accomplishments & Future Goals

Rita Ebert

2009 Clean Cities Eastern States Coordinator Peer Exchange
Pittsburgh, PA
June 23-25, 2009

Coalition Status and Sustainability

- Current Status
 - Full-time Coordinator / Two Years
- Membership Structure / Strategies
 - Dues: None
 - Membership Recruitment: Municipalities, Universities, Private Sector, Utilities
 - Annual ATC Conference, Workshops, Affiliate Organizations
- Steps to Self-Sustainment
 - CMAQ Funding, Government Grants and Stakeholder Sponsorships for Events

Significant/Noteworthy Projects & Activities

- Vehicle Projects

- Long Beach School District – 30 CNG School Buses
- Town of Smithtown – All CNG Private Sanitation Trucks

- Fueling Infrastructure Projects

- 15 CNG Fueling Stations
- 5 Biodiesel Fueling Stations
- 6 E85 Fueling Stations
- In the Process of Building the 1st Hydrogen Fueling Station on Long Island

- Outreach

- Advancing the Choice Conference
- Biodiesel Workshop
- Earth Day Events
- Advanced Energy Event with SUNY Stony Brook

Lessons Learned

- Workshops in AFV for EMTs
- Recipient of The Environmental Stewardship Award from Stony Brook University for the significant reduction or elimination of environmental pollution

Goals for 2009 & Beyond

- Conduct more AFV workshops
- Educational outreach to schools, municipalities and private fleets for membership and AFV programs
- Anticipated New Partnerships
 - Fueling Infrastructure Entities
 - LI Synagogue / Elementary Schools / Assisted Living