

Environmental Workshop

- DOE in cooperation with the Gasification Technologies Council (GTC) and the US EPA conducts Environmental Workshops to
 - educate federal, state and local regulators on the environmental benefits of gasification
 - Improve communication between the industry and regulators
- The first workshop was held March 2-3, 2006 in Tampa, FL with a site visit to the Polk IGCC plant. There were 120 persons attending.
- The second workshop was held June 28-29, 2006, in Bismarck, ND with a site visit to the Great Plains coal gasification plant in addition to a full day of briefings. There were 134 in attendance.

