

MORE! DINING

Dining in Greater Morgantown has evolved into a culinary adventure; new restaurants are thriving and timeless family establishments are flourishing.

For casual fare with an urban flair, try The Boston Beanery, a franchise that originated in Morgantown, or Martin's Bar-B-Que Joint for fall off the bone BBQ ribs. A family favorite is Colasante's, Old World Italian and a landmark for locals. Lakeside dining is available at Archie's Lakehouse throughout the Cheat Lake boating season, and Yesterday's Restaurant Bar & Grill features a large fireplace and patio dining.

The influence of flavors and culture here is almost overwhelming and has many positive effects on menu and recipe design. Wings Olé is a favorite of university students for "fries and bleu." Black Bear Burritos uses fresh ingredients and offers some vegan choices on the menu; you might even luck into a folk duo performance. Enticing flavors and exotic ingredients abound at Kassar's and Peking House. Rio Grande III and Los Mariachis excel at authentic Mexican cuisine. You'll find a diverse wine selection and imaginative cuisine at Morgantown's fine dining restaurants. Stefano's is family owned and specializes in Old World Italian and American cuisine with recipes that have been handed down through generations. Executive Chef Simon Poulin at Sargasso takes his inspiration from the Caribbean, French, Asian, Italian and Continental cuisines. The original etching room of the old Seneca Glass Factory has been beautifully renovated to house Antonio's Italian Chophouse; family friendly dining showcasing steaks, chops, seafood and Italian favorites. Cafe Bacchus offers upscale cuisine served in a historic home in downtown Morgantown.

There are several palate pleasers in Morgantown's Wharf District where you can enjoy alfresco dining by the Monongahela River. The Regatta Bar and Grille, inside Waterfront Place Hotel, features a crew team/rowing theme. Further down the rail-trail, you'll find the Lebanese Bistro, Table 9, Mountain State Brewing Co. and Oliverio's Ristorante on the Wharf, a Tuscan inspired eatery (a casual version of the menu is available at Oliverio's Marketplace in Suncrest).

Just off the beaten path of the I-68 Bruceton Mills exit is Little Sandy's Restaurant, which features simple country cooking, like homemade biscuits and gravy. It's one of the best places to sample the local specialty, buckwheat cakes and sausage. The Cathedral State Park and Melanie's, "home of good food, friendly smiles and low prices," are just two good reasons to visit Aurora.

Make your way to Kingwood for Monroe's Deli Style Eatery in downtown and Maxime's At The Inn, two local favorites.

Save room for dessert . . . a stroll through Downtown Morgantown will land you in front of Real Juice Bar and Cold Stone Creamery!

Like a too-small serving of your favorite dish, you may find your culinary adventure ending before you've quite satisfied your hunger. Not to worry . . . return visits to Greater Morgantown are highly encouraged!
